

High Commission of India
Canberra

Pandit Deendayal Upadhyay National Academy of Social Security (PDNASS), an apex Training & Research Academy of Employees' Provident Fund Organisation, Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India, is organizing a Training Programme on “Management of Social Security Systems” from 22nd October -26th October 2018 at its premises. This training programme is designed for senior and middle Management/Administrators working in Social Security Organisations/Departments of Labour & Employment of various countries.

2. EPFO is a social security organisation mandated to implement Employees Provident Funds & Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 and three schemes framed there under. One of the world's largest social security organisations, it is under the administrative control of Ministry of Labour & Employment, Govt. of India. EPFO manages a corpus of USD 200 Billion and has a contributing membership of 45 million.

3 The training programme covers various aspects of Social Security administration; beginning from the philosophy and design to execution and innovation. Expert Faculties shall be drafted from renowned institutions during the training. The training program will also provide an opportunity to the participants to learn various aspects of Social Security including application of latest Information & Communication technology. The participants will be provided an opportunity to learn about Indian history and culture through a study tour. Click here to download the detailed Brochure of the training, including Registration Form, fees and other information.

4 The interested candidates may send the duly filled form (enclosed in brochure) to natrss@epfindia.gov.in. The last date of submitting nominations for this programme is 30th June 2018. The details of the above mentioned programme are also uploaded on EPFO website i.e. www.epfindia.gov.in under the link What's New at home page of the website.